there can be many obstacles to faith as c s lewis discovered but he overcame them to become one of christianity s most ardent warriors of the faith art lindsley provides a readable introduction to c s lewis s reflections on objections to belief in jesus christ and the compelling reasons why lewis came to affirm the truth of christianity the battle between good and evil in both the seen and unseen worlds was clearly at play in the era of c s lewis j r r tolkien and their friends in the oxford literary group the inklings colin duriez delves into this interplay exploring the literature and thought of these writers in regard to evil and spiritual warfare particularly during wartime

c s lewis the work of christ revealed focuses on three doctrines or aspects of lewis s theology and philosophy his doctrine of scripture his famous mad bad or god argument and his doctrine of christological prefigurement in each area we see lewis innovating within the tradition he accorded a high revelatory status to scripture but acknowledged its inconsistencies and shrank away from a theology of inerrancy he took a two thousand year old theological tradition of aut deus aut malus homo either god or a bad man and developed it in his own way most innovative of all was his doctrine of christological prefigurement intimations of the christ event in pagan mythology and ritual this book forms the second in a series of three studies on the theology of c s lewis titled c s lewis revelation and the christ cslewisandthechrist net the books are written for academics and students but also crucially for those people ordinary christians without a theology degree who enjoy and gain sustenance from reading lewis s work once a prophet of critical other thought heidegger has now for many become the epitome of the unthinkable in the light of the black notebooks controversy the unthinkable here is anti semitism the encounter between heidegger and the jews has thus come to signify very much in the spirit of heidegger s own anti judaism the end of thought the present volume resists this view by positing not only heidegger but also the jewish people as representing thought the encounter between heidegger and various traditions of jewish thought is conceived here as a conversation inter alia an exchange between real or perceived others others to the philosophical tradition to mainstream modernity to western christian metaphysics to each other and even to themselves the conversation takes shape in this volume as a symposium of seventeen essays by leading scholars both of heidegger s philosophy and of jewish studies among the many recent discussions of the nature and authority of scripture i would judge this to be one of the most valuable particularly in those essays that deal with the actual phenomena of the text of scripture it displays a level of sophistication and of sympathetic awareness of alternative views that has too often been lacking in contrast to the backs to the wall tone of some conservative defenses of inerrancy these authors write for the most part with the confidence of those who have a coherent and well grounded position to offer the volume will i believe both help to commend evangelical doctrine to those who suspect it of blind obscurantism and also contribute significantly to mutual understanding among evangelicals who are too ready to polarize over their different assessments of what it means to honor scripture as the word of god r t france vice principal london bible college these thought minded essays are the channel through which conservative scholars must steer for competent interaction with current critical theories for helpful direction in focusing the battle over scripture and for reflection of conflict areas that evangelicals must themselves resolve this work rises above the shallow shadow boxing over inerrancy and engages central concerns with academic ability and dignity it puts on the agenda issues that evangelical leaders must now wrestle does the bible contain different kinds of truth is all divine revelation rational is the canon really post apostolic no reader will agree with all that is said some will loudly disagree here and there but all students will be stimulated and serious readers edified at the frontiers of current debate carl f h henry lecturer at large world vision
